	21/9/2004 Shri Sunil Sahu, Counsel for the petitioners. Shri Akhil Agrawal, P.L. for the State. Heard. Counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner was transferred in the year 2003, but have not been relieved because of the Lok Sabha and the Vidhan Sabha elections. It is further submitted that they have also made the representation for their relieving to the authorities concerned. It is also submitted that the transfer order is still in force and has not yet been cancelled. It is submitted that in similar matter bearing W.P. No.1465/04, orders have been passed. He prays that similar orders may be passed in this case also. State counsel does not dispute the fact. Having considered the facts and circumstances, material on record and the fact that the elections to the Lok Sabha and Vidhan Sabha have already been held and further the fact that as the transfer order of the petitioner is not yet cancelled then there is no reason in not relieving the petitioner, it is directed that the petitioner would be relieved by the authorities concerned within 3 weeks from the date of production of copy of this order before them. With this observation, this petition is disposed of. Consequently, M.W.P. No.2154/2004 and I.A.No. 5475/2004 also stand disposed of. C.C. as per rules. Sd/- Fakhruddin Judge
